

The Griffen Group's Valued Partnership Text

The Griffen Group's Managing Partners are a cadre of Senior Executive and private sector leaders with over 120 years of combined law enforcement experience leading organizations and thousands of employees to mission success at the local, regional, national, and international levels. Leveraging thought leadership expertise and proven experience, The Griffen Group delivers innovative security solutions and leadership education to meet clients' goals through planning, execution, flexibility and agility. Our team of course developers, instructors, and border operations and security consultants have front-line experience encompassing operations, critical infrastructure protection, risk assessment, strategic development, leadership, employee development, and logistics to assist you in addressing your leadership education and security solutions requirements. To learn more, visit us at our Web Site www.thegriffengrp.com